

1.94
Ad 4 Pc

LIBRARY
RECEIVED
★ MAY 17 1934 ★
U.S. Department of Agriculture

POSSIBLE CONTRACT COMBINATIONS OF TRACTS OF LAND OPERATED JOINTLY
BY THE PRODUCER AS ONE FARMING UNIT

(1)

(2)

(1) Owner and operator of the farm.

(2) Rented for cash.

(3)

(4)

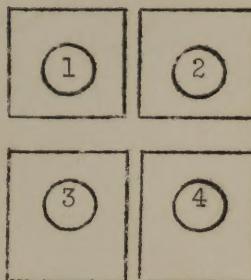

(3) Rented on shares from landlord A.

(4) Rented on shares from landlord B.

* * * * *

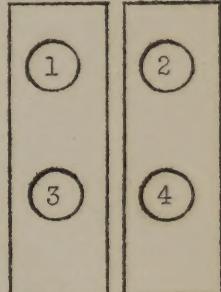

Tract 1 may be under one contract. Tract 2 may be under one contract. Tract 3 may be under one contract.

E

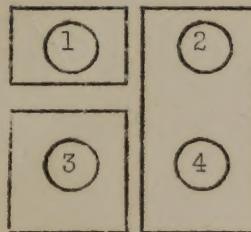

Tracts 1-3 may be combined under one contract. Tracts 2-4 may be combined under one contract.

F

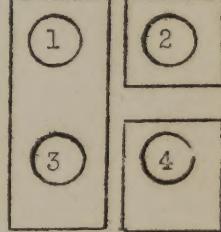

Tract 1 may be under one contract. Tract 3 may be under one contract. Tracts 2-4 may be combined under one contract.

G

Tracts 1-3 may be combined under one contract. Tract 2 may be under one contract. Tract 4 may be under one contract.

H

* * * * *

WHO MAY SIGN THE CONTRACT
IF THE CONTRACTED ACRES ARE LOCATED ON:

Tract 1 only the producer signs;

Tract 2 only the producer signs;

Tracts 1 and 2 only the producer signs;

Tract 3, or any combination of tract 3 with tract 1 and/or 2, producer and landlord A sign;

Tract 4, or any combination of tract 4 with tract 1 and/or 2, producer and landlord B sign;

Tracts 3 and 4, separate contracts must be executed covering the land owned by A and the land owned by B, in any possible combination with tracts 1 and/or 2. In such cases, the landlords will sign the contracts covering their respective land.

If either landlord A or landlord B have stock share lease or agreement with the producer, he must sign the contract regardless of location of contracted acres.

All land in the farming unit operated by the producer must be covered by one or more contracts. Landlords of two different tracts may not sign any one contract. Each contract must have contracted acres included therein.

